

Writing Cinquain Poems about the Spirit

Cinquain poems are simply five-line, unrhymed poems. Writing cinquains gives children an opportunity to be creative without worrying about the number of syllables or beats in each line of a poem.

1. Have each child write a cinquain poem about the Holy Spirit.
2. When everyone has finished, invite the children to share their poems with the rest of the group.