

Dramatizing Paul's Conversion

1. Distribute Bibles and read together Acts 9:1-30.
2. List all the parts for the play and assign them.
3. Talk about sound effects that the children may be able to include in the play and assign people to provide the sounds.

If possible, make simple costumes from towels, sheets or robes.

Provide time to prepare the play.

4. Present the play to parents or other groups of children.