

Interviewing Living Saints

1. Explain that the children are going to interview a person whom they believe lives a life of holiness. This person is a model of faith.
2. Together, brainstorm a list of interview questions to use.
3. Give the children a period of time to conduct their interviews.

Provide time for the children to share their interview results with the rest of the group.