

Inviting Guests: A Priest and a Married Couple

1. Explain to your pastor that you are teaching the children about Holy Orders and Matrimony. Tell him that you would like both a priest and a married couple to talk with your group of children. Invite him to be one of the guests.
2. Ask you pastor for a suggestion or invite a married couple that you know.
3. Be sure that the guests understand that the children have been learning about the Sacraments at the Service of Communion.
4. Ask the guests to explain to the children how they live a life of service to the Church and how they live as signs of God's love.
5. Be sure to include time for the children to ask questions.
