

Taking Action

1. A new student from another country comes to your school. This person is shy and feels like an outsider.

My faith response:

2. The household responsibilities in your home are piling up. It is a very busy time and everyone is working hard.

My faith response:

3. You hear a news report about how recycling in your neighborhood can help the natural environment.

My faith response:
