

Church as Herald And Servant Collage

For this activity you will need newsprint or butcher paper, tape, magazines, newspapers, scissors, and markers.

1. Tape together large pieces of newsprint or butcher paper in the shape of a “church” on a wall.
2. Remind the group that the church is made of the People of God who are called to be heralds and servants of the Gospel.
3. Using magazines, newspapers, etc., have the young people cut out images that show or symbolize how people can be heralds and servants of the Gospel.
4. Have the group create a collage of the Church as Herald and Servant by pasting their images on the “church”.
