

Missionary Guest

Invite a person who had done mission work for the Church to come and share with your group of young people. There may be someone in your own parish community who has done mission work somewhere in the world. Ask in the parish office. Or, contact your diocese and its Office for the Missions for speaker referrals.