

Respecting Others

Invite the children to name the people they respect. Ask them to explain how they show their respect for these people.

As the children name those they respect, write those names on the chalkboard or on a piece of poster board.

After everyone has shared, offer a short prayer for the people the children named. Such as, “Lord, we ask you to bless these special people in our lives. Help us to remember to treat all people with respect. Amen.”