

High and Lows

On the diagram below write down one highpoint, a time when you have helped someone in need; and one low point when you did not reach out to someone in need. When you finish, make a new commitment to live out your Baptismal anointing.

