

A Collection of Wisdom

Use the interview questions below to gather the wisdom that your family has to share. Write down stories and traditions from your family so that you can pass them on from generation to generation.

Ask a family member over the age of 50: What saying or teaching has helped guide your life on a good path?

Ask a family member who lives in your household: What are your favorite family traditions?

Ask a family member of your choice: Share one funny family story.
